

Sandra Richez

MBA Global Program Director

ABOUT

I am the Director EDHEC Business School's Global MBA in Nice, Innovative and student-focused education executive with over 20 years of leadership in education and learning at top-tier International business schools and world-class corporations. A team leader with strong communication skills, unique intercultural perspective, I have an excellent track record of developing and delivering service excellence and innovative learning programs for students, managers and executives. I am American and a parent of three grown children. I have worked full-time while raising a family together with my French husband. I have lived in Asia, Europe and the Americas and enjoy working in a global context. In my free time I enjoy boating, paddle boarding, hiking, skiing, cooking and travelling.

Key strengths: Identifying, selecting and developing global talent | Student, and senior-level alumni and corporate relations | Managing multi-campus programs | Promoting programs, marketing and admissions | Developing strategic partnerships | Coaching and career counseling | Communicating across cultures | Delivering service excellence | Planning meetings, events and group business trips | Managing complexity, ambiguity and multiple priorities | Public speaking | Writing and editing | Responsibility, integrity and discretion.

I AM LOOKING TO MENTOR

Il am happy to mentor on anything career or leadership related, communication and presentation skills, living and adapting to life in France, entrepreneurship and workplace advising (getting promoted, negotiating salary, etc.)